

Family Work in Early Psychosis

Training DVDs now with subtitles and accompanying transcripts

DVDs with subtitles and written transcripts

This set of 5 DVDs covers family work consistent with current Department of Health policy and NICE Guidelines:

- * The impact of psychosis
- * The benefits of evidence-based family work
- * Interviews with service users and family members
- * The impact of psychosis on siblings
- * Demonstration of family work skills with two families
- * Cultural factors relevant to family work
- * Tried and tested implementation strategies
- * The benefits of Carers' Support Groups in early psychosis
- * The innovative role of the Carer Consultant in Early Intervention services

Who is this for?

- Mental health professionals including Adult and Child & Adolescent services
- Managers
- Commissioners
- Carers, family members and service users
- University lecturers and trainees

Can be used for:

- Family work training as part of Meriden 5-day training courses
- Staff induction
- Awareness raising and education for mental health teams
- University courses for all professional groups
- Supervision sessions
- General learning resource

This series of five subtitled DVDs and accompanying transcript is available to purchase for £245
Written transcripts available £30 each

For further information or to purchase copies of this series of DVDs, please contact:
Mrs Sam Farooq, Business Manager, The Meriden Family Programme,
Tall Trees, Uffculme Centre, Queensbridge Road, Moseley, Birmingham B13 8QY
Tel: 0121 301 2896 Fax: 0121 301 2891 Email: samfarooq@nhs.net

Developed and copyrighted by the Meriden Family Programme

(First produced in 2009. Revised in 2016)

Acknowledged worldwide for its expertise in the field of family work since 1998

www.meridenfamilyprogramme.com